

Confessing – Waters of Justice

I confess, Lord God, that I have failed to always love you and others.
Forgive me for choosing gold rings
when my neighbor's children have no shoes.
Forgive me for putting my needs
above the least of these.
Forgive me for dishonoring the poor and failing to see the world through your eyes.
Show me how to love my neighbors.
Heal my selfishness.
Help me find waters of justice in the wilderness of need. Amen.

June Galle Krehbiel (USA), 2015.

Creative Commons: Attribution Non-Commercial 4.0 International \(CC BY-4.0\)