

Offering – In Remembrance

What do we know of offering?

We offer our money and our talents and our time,
sometimes without thinking,
sometimes begrudgingly,
to be used for the work of your church.

But you, O Christ, offered up prayers, supplications, and ultimately your life for the world.

May we offer this small token
with intention,
with hope,
in remembrance and honor of your love for the world.
Amen.
