

Offering – Healing Waters

Lord God, it is difficult for some of us
to surrender 'our' money.
Our offering is tainted by the seduction of earned righteousness.
Money is our culture's most beloved idol
and too often we are no different.
We ask that your mercy transcend our motivations,
and your love see past our human imperfections
so that what is gathered today will bring forth your justice.
May it flow like healing waters and wash away evil
and swathe all nations in your peace. Amen.
