

Praying – Grant Us Faith for Healing and Hope

Merciful God, when we consider all of the pain and injustice in our world, we feel like shouting. We shout for mercy, but where is the mercy? We shout for healing, but where is the healing? We see glimpses of hope, and wonder what we should expect. We experience fragments of good news, and wonder if there is more to come. Grant us the faith to keep seeking, to keep expecting, to keep watching for the healing and hope that you promise. Amen.

Joel Miller (USA), 2014.

Creative Commons: Attribution Non-Commercial 4.0 International \(CC BY-4.0\)