

Confessing – Make Our Hearts Pure

Holy God, you know our hearts and all the evil intentions that come from within that make us unclean. You know when we try to hide our sins by keeping up a good front or by comparing ourselves to others who have openly broken the law. You know the hypocrisy and wrongful pride that manifests itself when we speak and point our fingers to condemn others.

People see when our actions do not match what we say we believe. Our sins keep them from seeing your light, your truth, and your love.

Forgive us, Lord. Make our hearts pure and our actions loving.
Amen.
