

Confession and Assurance – We are Ashamed of Our Greed

Confession

(Read in unison)

Giving God, we are humbled by your extravagance;
which offers us much more than we could possibly need.

We are shamed by our greed and wasteful desires,
shamed that we fear to trust your provision.

We confess the folly of trusting our own wisdom,
of grasping and holding on to what is not even ours.

Open our eyes to see.

Open our hearts and hands to give.

Assurance

(Read by leader)

I will free your hearts and hands so you may do your part to make my extravagant generosity visible to all.

From Leader, Winter 2012-13. ©2012 MennoMedia.