

Confession and Assurance – Flourishing Seeds of Hope

People: God of all creation, Lord of the Land,
and Sower of Souls,
Our lives are not as fertile as in the beginning,
routines become hardened paths,
busyness entangles us,
and insecurities rock our world.
Yet still you sow seeds.
Give us the courage to explore your world,
the presence to live your word,
and the confidence to clear hurdles. Amen.

Leader: People of God,
The Word of God does not return empty,
it irrigates hearts and minds,
softening furrowed brows,
filling creases with caring.
Seeds of hope flourish in God's sight.
