

Confession and Assurance – Right Our Relationships

Prayer of Confession

(May be read in unison)

God of grace, you made us so that we could be community to one another.

Sometimes we love each other well.

Sometimes, rather than acting as partners together in your service, we compete against each other for power.

Some of us are taught to take more than our fair share.

Others of us are taught to settle for far too little.

Show us what it means to be in right relationship with one another.

For it is the way we regard one another that reveals our love for you.

(Pause)

Words of Assurance

(Read by leader)

Be assured that you are released from the weight of having managed your relationships with yourself, God, and others imperfectly.

Know that you are free to make amends. Amen.
