

Confession – You Are the Healer

O God,

sometimes we think we are too important
to accept your invitation to wash and be clean.

We want to do something heroic to earn your favor.

We try to pay for your blessings
instead of living lives of gratitude.

Forgive us.

Immerse us in your grace,
heal our diseases,
and purify our hearts.

In whatever circumstances we find ourselves,
strengthen us to direct others to you
so that they, too, may receive your healing salvation. Amen.
